To Marry in Los Angeles.

A wedding of two Paducahans in Los Angeles, Cal., leaked out today through a relative of the groom, and will come as a pleasant surprise to the friends of both persons interested. They have been away from the city but a few weeks.

Mr. Thomas Stroud and Miss Nellie Stokes, formerly of the South Side, will be married in Los Angeles July 18, and will reside in the west, where Mr. Stroud has secured a position. Mr. Stroud left the first of the month but went first to Ft. Worth, Tex., while Miss Stokes left but a few days ago for Los Angeles to join her parents who have recently moved there.

Mr. Stroud is a boilermaker and a prominent union worker. He had been for years employed in the Paducah Illinois Central shops and is well known and popular. He left for the west but did not tell anyone of the approaching marriage until after his departure.

Miss Stokes is the daughter of John Stokes, the well known carpenter-contractor, and was for years book-keeper for the Loeb-Bloom company here. She is a bright and attractive girl with many friends here.

Mr. Stroud will leave Ft. Worth on July 10 and will go to Los Angeles. The wedding will be a quiet affair at the bride's home.
